Coronavirus info

The way you get support from us might be different for a while, but we are still here. If you're worried about something, please get in touch.

You can call us on 020 8289 1999 or give your worker a ring.

Updates to the service:

- Our Norton House hub is closed for now.
- Our London Road hub is still open 10:00 - 16:00 weekdays. Give us a call first and we'll let you know how we can help.
- If you have questions about your prescriptions take a look at our prescription information page.
- For now, we are doing all appointments over the phone.
- Needle exchange and naloxone are available at the London Road hub. You can also have it delivered to you for free. Get in touch to find out more.

Help in a crisis

If it's an emergency or you don't think you can keep yourself safe, please call 999 or go to A&E.

If you need urgent help but you don't want or need to go to A&E, here are some options:

- Call the Samaritans on 116 123 (free, open 24/7).
- If you or someone you know needs urgent care but it's not life-threatening, call 111.
- Visit the NHS website and find crisis support services near you. Services in Scotland.
- If you already have a Crisis Line number, give them a call.
- Contact your GP surgery and ask for an emergency appointment.
- Find helpline numbers for Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous and Cocaine Anonymous.
